Project Overview

Headquartered in Charlotte, NC, Steffan Latorre Law Offices serves North and South Carolina, and Jacksonville, FL with immigration, personal injury, worker's compensation and criminal defense representation. This project combined offices in an old house being renovated and expanded to make one new large building. New and existing furniture was blended to give the customer a cohesive look. Work began in April 2013 and includes new cubicles, private offices, conference furniture and reception area furnishings. The primary installation was executed in close coordination with multiple trades people and vendors.
